OPSHOP TOURS

Joanne O'Callaghan likes a good rummage. And that special, faint, lavender- and mothball smell that secretly mean one thing: thrifty bargains of the up shop kind. As part of the Melbourne Fringe Festival, Joanne is running Op Shop Tours of the city for free, guided secondhand open-tourists, with giveaways, competitions and vintage finds, and the chance to do a neat little pocket of hand-me-down goodness you didn't know existed. Tours run for four hours each on September 27th and October 1st and 4th and tickets are $25 or $22 for concessions. Have a look at www.melbournefringe.com.au for more info and feel the vintage love.
